Every Team Has a Story. What's Yours?

"Chuck Kriese, one of the most renowned names in tennis world wide, was named the head coach of The Citadel men's tennis program in July 2013."

"In 2009, Kriese coached Thai player, Noppawan Lertcheewakarn to 3 Junior Grand Slam titles including the Girls Singles Championship at Wimbledon."

"American College Tennis Coaches have been battling about scoring systems and formats for too many years."

"Millions of people have seen the Clemson University logo over the last several days simply because their football team was again in the national championship game. Like the logo representing the University of Alabama football program, the paw of the Clemson Tiger represents a statement of success. Yet when I see the Clemson logo, I don't think football; I think of Chuck Kriese."

"Chuck Kriese has sat in the Wimbledon coach's box, battled swarms of mosquitoes in his home and carefully sidestepped pythons in his first year of molding Southeast Asian tennis in Thailand."

"At junior tournaments throughout the country, it has become common to use so-called 'Super Tie-Breakers' (STBs) instead of playing out third sets."

"Wimbledon gives Kriese top moment"

"During that time, Kriese became the all-time most winning tennis coach in Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) history, with 685 wins. His teams also earned 10 ACC championships."

"... 2017 inductee Chuck Kriese. The 26th annual induction ceremony was held on January 27th, 2017 at the Holiday Inn (North) in Indianapolis."

"I must have over seventy books on tennis, and I'd probably have more if I had shelf space for them. There are some really good ones there, but if I were allowed to keep just one, this would be it, "Coaching Tennis" by Chuck Kriese. He has been one of the most successful coaches in the country at Clemson University for many years."
